

Unit 2H Review

Terms
Social Change	Upward Comparison	Telecommuting
Acculturation	Downward Comparison	Constructivism
Diffusion	Competitive Emulation	Value Added Theory
Collectivist Society	Cognitive Consistency	Resource Mobilization Theory
Individualist Society		Collective Behaviour
Affinal Kin
Consanguineal Kin
Conformity

Theorists
Harris	Malinowski	Asch
Festinger

Concepts

- Describe the following theories of social change
- Functionalist Theory, Conflict Change Theory, Evolutionary Theory, Cyclical Theory, Challenge and Response
- How may internal factors drive social change?
- How do the following external factors drive social change?
  - Physical Environment, Population Change, Proximity, Technology, Social Environment
- List and describe the three levels of cultural materialism
- What purpose may the following kinship patterns serve: monogamy, polyandry, polygyny, arranged marriages
- What four aspects of social change do sociologists study?
- Contrast primary and secondary groups
- Contrast instrumental and expressive leadership
- What is social comparison theory and how does it help develop identity?
- Describe the Robber's Cave experiment and what it taught us about competition, use the terms in-group and out-group
- Describe Festinger's cognitive dissonance theory
- Name and describe the three relationships between mental attitudes and actions
- Briefly describe the following paradigms of cognitive dissonance: Belief disconfirmation, Induced compliance, Free choice, effort justification
- What is containment theory? Describe inner containment and outer containments? How is containment theory and the internet leading to decreased morals?
- Describe the idea the "technology has created a simulated society."
- Describe the following types of social movements
- Revolutionary, Reformatory, Redemptive, Alternative

HSB 4U
J. Kropac

- What six conditions must be met for social change to happen?
- Briefly describe one social justice movement
- What is the difference between a mob, riot, and social movement?

Big Questions:

- What are some rites of passage in your culture? How do rites of passage play a role in mental wellness?
- Discuss one paradigm shift in society and how it has led to social change.
- What is meant by the term looking glass self and how is it linked to social media?
- Are violence and video games related?