

Media Critique: 'Nosedive' and Social Media Use

Give several examples of ways that technology and social media are present in the everyday life of Lacie in 'Nosedive.' (5 marks)

Do you think this is a realistic representation of technology use in society today? Explain. (3 marks)

How is social status determined in the episode? Do you think this resonates with how social status is determined today. Discuss why or why not. (3 marks)

HSB 4U

An individual's status set several limitations throughout the episode. Think of three everyday life examples where social status may limit opportunities. (3 marks)

Make a connection between the episode and Social Comparison Theory. Include three specific pieces of evidence from the episode. (3 marks)

Make at least five connections between the reality presented in Nosedive and society today. (5 marks)